

Family Fortunes

Presenter: Hello and welcome to family fortunes. With me , You all know the rules of the game so lets get started with contestant number one from the family. Hi there, contestant number one. Can you name a living person who has had a big influence on your life?

Contestant 1: Well, I 'll go for Nelson Mandela

Presenter: Yes very good. A very good choice. Nelson Mandela. Let's see ...you said Nelson Mandela. Our survey said (SFX) 45.

(Applause)

Very good. 45. Now what about you, contestant number two. Which living person do you think people said had had a major influence on their lives?

Contestant 2: I'll go for David Beckham.

Presenter: You say 'David Beckham. Our survey said (Wrong SFX)

Bad luck. Obviously David Beckham is not as big a role model as he thinks he is. Our next contestant. Contestant number three. Which living person has had the most affect on people's lives?

Contestant 3: I'll say the queen.

Presenter: You say the queen...our survey says.....(SFX) 65

Applause. Very good. 65. Let's move on to our last contestant. Number four Finally contestant number 4. Name a living person who has had a big influence on your life.

Contestant 4: I'd say Jesus Christ.

Presenter: (somewhat embarrassed) Very good. Err...actually you probably missed out on a slight detail there. In our survey we asked which living person had most influenced people. Not some dead dude (Laughing)

C4: Living person. Yes, I know.

Presenter: Right ...so you see..Jesus Christ wouldn't qualify, would he?

C4: And why not?

Presenter: Well...because he's dead, isn't he? I mean he did live 2000 years ago-he's long since dead and buried.

C4: Oh, yes.

Presenter: Well, there we are.

C4: For a while.

Presenter: What?

C4 : Dead for as while.

Presenter: What do you mean-dead for a while?

C4: For a while, temporarily, for the time being, briefly.

Presenter: How can you be briefly dead? Briefly alive, I could understand. But briefly dead. It doesn't make sense. You say you want to go for Jesus Christ?

(C4 nodding)

Presenter: OK. Dead or alive? You say Jesus Christ.....our survey says.....?
